

(F) The disobedient soul exposes itself to great misfortunes; it will make no progress toward perfection, nor will it succeed in the spiritual life. God lavishes His graces most generously upon the soul, but it must be an obedient soul. (D 113)

(F) I must take no heed of the opinion of others, but obey the evidence of my own conscience and take God to be the witness of all my actions. I must do everything and act in all matters now as I would like to do and act at the hour of my death. For this reason, in every action I must be mindful of God. (D 226)

(F) I always consider what is more pleasing to Jesus. (D 380)

(F) My God, I desire nothing but the fulfillment of Your will. It does not matter whether it will be easy or difficult. (D 615)

(F) I try always to be obedient, despite everything A disobedient soul will win no victory. (D 624 & 113)

(F) I do always what God asks of me, although my nature often quakes and I feel that the magnitude of these things is beyond my strength. I know well what I am of myself, but I also know what the grace of God is, which supports me. (D 652)

(F) Faithful submission to the will of God, always and everywhere, in all events and circumstances of life, gives great glory to God. (D 724)

(F) Submission to the will of God carries more weight with Him than long fasts, mortifications and the most severe penances. Oh, how great is the reward for one act of loving submission to the will of God! (D 724)
